I believe my finance and accounting experience as well as my investor relations/communications experience could be beneficial for the Friends of Log Cabin Village, both in helping to manage FLCV's financials and developing external communications/outreach efforts.

What excites you most about this opportunity or mission? *

As a Fort Worth native with a deep personal connection to Log Cabin Village (Harry and Martha Foster are my great-great-great-great grandparents), the opportunity to enhance FLCV's resources and Log Cabin Village's visibility in the community is exciting to me. Although I do not have prior board experience, I believe my professional experience and my relationships within the Fort Worth community could help promote Log Cabin Village and its mission of connecting to our ancestors to younger generations.
